CRISTOBAL COLON DIAZ.

Plaintiff,

v.

CIVIL NO. 97-1243 (RLA)

SERGIO GONZALEZ, et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER SETTING DEADLINE FOR APPEARANCE OF SUBSTITUTE COUNSEL

Plaintiff has failed to appear through substitute counsel since leave was granted for JESUS R. MORALES CORDERO, ESQ. to withdraw as his attorney in February 2000.<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, defendants' Motion Requesting this Honorable Court to Order Plaintiff to Announce Legal Representation and for an Extension of Time, filed on May 8, 2000 (docket No. 42) is GRANTED.

Plaintiff is admonished that unless substitute counsel enters an appearance on his behalf on or before June 15, 2000 the complaint filed in this case shall be dismissed for lack of prosecution.

In the meantime, the terms for submission of dispositive motions will be HELD IN ABEYANCE.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 12th day of May, 2000.

RAYMOND L. ACOSTA
United States District Judge
